I tried the machine on some fabric at the sellers and it worked fine on various layers, I then stripped it off the table and loaded it into back of car, Got it home and set it up in workshop added oil etc and got it switched on to sew. Tried it out on some very soft floppy leather and after 8 or ten stitches the top thread snapped, I have tried several times with re threading the machine and different stuff and every time it snaps the top thread. I am not sure if I am threading the machine properly and I have only the one needle that came with it, I am using the thread that works well on my small domestic machine, I DO NOT know needle size or for that matter thread size.
