The different options are known as Pick 1, Pick 2, Pick 3, Pick 4 and Pick 5 and the aim is to match all of your chosen numbers with those drawn.UK49 Teatime Rules: There is no fixed stake, so the amount you win depends on how much you wager and how many numbers you bet on. Pay-outs tend to differ between bookmakers but in general, the more you wager, the more you can win.Each bookmaker will also set its own limit for the maximum bet (and subsequent pay out) that it will accept. You should check the rules laid out by the bookmaker before taking part as they can vary between different operators. You only win if you match all the numbers that you chose - there is no prize for picking four numbers and only matching three of them. In order to win, you must match all four. our odds of winning depend on whether you play the '6 Number Draw' or the '7 Number Draw'. The '7 Number Draw' includes the Booster Ball, giving you an extra chance to match one of your numbers, whereas the '6 Number Draw' only includes the six main numbers.You can enter right up to the game's official start time and can either choose your own numbers or opt for a Lucky Dip. You can also choose how many days you want to play for (maximum of seven consecutive days). If you win, you will be paid out in accordance with the individual bookmaker's prize rules, which will be based on the odds and the size of your stake. Some history: The UK 49's lunchtime lottery is part of the bigger UK49s lottery, that launched in the early 1990's, shortly after the UK National Lottery. The aim of the UK49's was to create a similar lottery style draw game, but with a gambling/casino style program, as opposed to a domestic state lottery. There are two different draws, that take place every day - the lunchtime draw happens at 12:49pm (UK time) and the teatime draw at 16:49 (UK time). Both draws are streamed live throughout UK in participating betting shops and online. Past winners: Quite a few but the winnings have not been significant.UK49s Teatime PredictionSee the latest Hot Balls and Cold Balls from the UK 49s teatime (also called UK 49s Evening), and use them to make predictions on the next UK 49 teatime draw.
