Canada election platforms guide

Conservatives will ensure that CRA is responsive to the needs of Canadians, delivers quality service and advice, respects small business, and focuses efforts on wealthy tax evaders and big corporations. Conservatives Meet with the premiers within the first 100 days of forming government to propose a new health agreement that boosts the annual growth rate of the Canada Health Transfer to at least six per cent, adding nearly $60 billion into the health care system over the next ten years. Develop national care standards for home care and long-term care, regulated by the same principles as the Canada Health Act and provide funding to the provinces to help meet those standards. Set up a dedicated fast-start fund to encourage the construction of coops, social and non-profit housing. All purchases made at retail stores will be tax free for this month. Establish regulations under the Canada Health Act governing accessibility for sexual and reproductive health services including abortion. Hire 40,000 more early childhood educators. Spend $700 million to add 50,000 new electric vehicle chargers and hydrogen stations. Introduce a one per cent wealth tax on people with fortunes over $10 million. Here's a running list of specific promises announced by the Liberals, Conservatives and NDP since the official start of the Election 44 campaign. From new issues like COVID-19 recovery to traditional issues like health care and taxes, this is what the major parties are offering in exchange for your vote The major party leaders as they announced their platforms for the 2021 federal election: Liberal Justin Trudeau, Conservative Erin O'Toole and NDP Jagmeet Singh. Require 30 per cent of light-duty vehicles to be zero emission by 2030. Encourage Canadians to invest in rental housing by extending the ability to defer capital gains tax when selling a rental property and reinvesting in rental housing. Launch a comprehensive review of the tax system to improve competitiveness, bring down rates and simplify the rules. Increase the capital gains inclusion rate to 75 per cent and boost the top marginal tax rate on income over $214,000 to 35 per cent from the current 33 per cent. From now until the bitter end of Election 44, the National Post is publishing a special daily edition of First Reading, our politics newsletter, to keep you posted on the ins and outs (and way outs) of the campaign. Put in place a long-term hiring bonus to pay the employer portion of EI and CPP for new or rehired staff. POST-PANDEMIC RECOVERY Liberals Extend the Canada Recovery Hiring Program to March 31 next year, giving a credit to employers who bring on new hires. Devote $3 billion of infrastructure funding over the next three years to renovate long-term care homes in all provinces and territories across Canada. Expand public health care to cover dental, optometry and mental health services. NDP Set a target of reducing Canada's emissions by at least 50 per cent from 2005 levels by 2030. VACCINES Liberals Require travellers on interprovincial trains, commercial flights, cruise ships, and other federally regulated vessels to be vaccinated. Forcing people to pay into an account for their carbon use and then use those funds for environmentally friendly purchases. A Canada-wide vaccine passport system to be in place as soon as possible. NDP Mandatory vaccines for federally regulated workers, including public servants by Labour Day. HOUSING Liberals Introduce a new rent-to-own program to help make it easier for renters to get on the path towards home ownership. Build a publicly-owned vaccine production facility in Canada. Train up to 50,000 new personal support workers. Work with public service unions, to require public servants to be vaccinated. This will increase CRA's resources by up to $1 billion per year. Raise wages for personal support workers, including a guaranteed minimum wage of at least $25 per hour. Release at least 15 per cent of federal government owned land for housing. Conservatives Convert the Child Care Expense deduction into a refundable tax credit covering up to 75 per cent of the cost of child care based on income. Build 250,000 new high-quality child care spaces. NDP Introduce a temporary COVID-19 excess profit tax that puts an additional 15 per cent tax on large corporate windfall profits during the pandemic. All curated by the National Post's own Tristin Hopper and published Monday to Friday at 6 p.m. and Sundays at 9 a.m. Sign up here. Go to topic: Liberals Provide $3.2 billion to the provinces and territories to hire 7,500 new family doctors, nurses, and nurse practitioners. Provide $1 billion to provinces to support setting up vaccine passport systems. So what's in the party platform's? Encourage faith-based and other community organizations to expand their provision of palliative and long-term care. The charge for those personal carbon savings accounts would begin at $20 per tonne and rise to no higher than $50 per tonne. Immediately invest $6 billion to support the elimination of health system waitlists. Liberals Invest $9 billion over five years to support safer conditions for seniors and improved wages. NDP Take immediate action to save not-for-profit child care centres that are at risk of closure with a relief fund to re-open spaces that were lost during COVID-19. NDP Make sure that small businesses wage and rent subsidies continue until small businesses are able to fully reopen. NDP End private, for-profit, long-term care and bring long-term care homes under the public umbrella. CHILDCARE Liberals Continue with their plan to deliver a 50 per cent cut in child care fees next year, and deliver $10 a day care in five years or less.
