The question then passes to the next player until he is shown a card. If no one can answer and you are not bluffing, you would have identified one of the cards in the murder envelope. Player rules # Asking Questions as normal. The player to your left is next. How do you win? There are 6 suspects, 6 weapons in the mansion of room 9 and players need to figure out 3 things: Who did this? What was the weapon used? Where did they do it? # Make sure that all cards on either side are facing the same direction: all cards on the light side facing one side, all cards on the dark side facing the other. The player who draws the largest number is the largest symbol like zero). Each player is dealt seven cards. Your Light Side should face you and your Dark Side should face your opponent. Place the rest of the deck face down to form a DRAWING pile (the Dark Side cards will be face up). Turn the card from the top of the DRAWING pile to start the DISCARD pile. Weapon and characters # CAR and all 6 character chips in the center of the board (even if there are fewer than six players) Each player chooses a character from the list of suspects You will use your character's matching color token to move around the mansion. Murder envelope # Murder envelope contains the cards from the gun, suspect and room involved in the murder. Accommodate all decks and place them face down on the table. Randomly select Weapon, suspect, and room involved in the murder. Without looking, take the top card from each deck and place it in the Yellow Envelope. Murder envelope # WEAPON: Dagger, Candlestick, Revolver, Rope, Lead Pipe, Scatterer, Hat. # SUSPECT: Col. Mustard, Mrs. White, Dr. Orchid, Miss Scarlet, Mrs. Peacock, Mr. Green. # ROOM: Library, Billiard Room, Conservatory, Kitchen, Dining Room, Parlor, Study, Conservatory, Hall. Deal them all face down to each player, so that they all have the same number of cards. It is not necessary to use all of them. # If your roll is too low, you must stay in the Corridor this turn; or aim to land on a Red Bonus space instead! An exact roll is not needed to stop on the Bonus space. When landing on a Bonus space, pick up the top Red Bonus card and follow the instructions. Once you have entered a room, you must stop and ask a CLUE question about one suspect, one weapon and the room you are in. If you enter the Garage, you can ask: "Was it Scarlet?" It is not in the envelope, so it is not involved in the murder. # Roll the dice and move your Character token that number of spaces around the board. (if your token was moved by another player since your last turn, you can choose to stand where you are and ask a question without moving.) You can move vertically and horizontally, forward and three through the hallway, but do not diagonally. Always try to enter a room (at the beginning, any room will do). The other player should always try to answer. If the player cannot answer, you must secretly look at one of the four cards on the side of the board.
